Yr2 3-tees cricket festival

On Monday we went to Colchester Cricket ground and took part in a 3-tees cricket tournament against other schools in and around Colchester. We had to play three other schools in our group: Prettygate, St Johns and Totham which we managed to win all of them, with our excellent fielding skills. We then progressed to the semi-final where it was a very tough game and unfortunately got beaten. But we had a playoff for 3rd place which we managed to win by 2 runs!

We came 3rd out of 10 teams and got a bronze medal and a certificate.

Special thanks to Freddie's Mum and Jack's Mum for taking and supporting the children. It was very much appreciated. Well done: Freddie S, Jack, Lexie F, Rosie S, Charlotte and Sofia H!

Football match vs. Tiptree Heath

On Wednesday it was our first football match of the year against Tiptree Heath. Everyone played their socks off, and we won 8-0! Well done to the goal scorers: Zac M scored 4, Alex G 2, George C 1 and an own goal from a Heath player.

Special thanks must go to Alex G who stepped in last minute and played and was a valued member of the team.

Thank you to all the parents who came and supported on the side lines and cheered on the team.

Well done to all the players: Josh H in goal, Zachary H, Toby S, Zac M, George C, Alex G and Bobby.

Next match against St. Luke's - watch this space!
